

BBN Baked Salmon w/ Lemon Tahini Tarator

Tarator, a creamy Middle Eastern sauce made with tahini, fresh lemon, garlic, and water, with roots in Turkish and Lebanese cooking. Bright, nutty, and downright delicious, it's just the thing to dress up a good piece of fish — but don't stop there! Spoon it over steamed asparagus, dip fresh carrots right into it, or drizzle it over your favorite veggies. NOTE: This little sauce may just make plain vegetables want to do a little do-si-do right across your plate! 🌸

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.
2. Place the salmon fillet on sheet pan lined with parchment paper.
3. Drizzle olive oil over salmon and season with Celtic salt and pepper to taste.
4. Place in the oven and bake for 20-25 minutes, or until salmon flakes apart easily in the middle with a fork.
5. While salmon is baking, mix together the tahini, lemon juice, and garlic. Add salt and pepper to taste.
6. Gradually add water, if needed, until desired consistency is reached. I like mine slightly thick, but others will add more water to the tahini mix to create a nice drizzle for over the salmon.
7. Plate the that pretty salmon and drizzle with the tarator. Serve with your favourite side of veggies.
